APC Meeting

Our next regular APC Meeting is tonight at 6:00 P.M. in the front hallway. All parents are welcome. –Mrs. Tro.

MAP Testing

Thanks for having your students at school and ready for the MAP Tests this week. We have a few make-up tests to complete. Results of the tests will be shared with you at conferences in October. –Mrs. Tro.

Lost and Found

The Lost and Found tub by the office window is already full. Please have your children check for any missing items. Thanks! –Mrs. Tro.

Morning Drop Off

If you bring your children into the school in the mornings, please park at the sides of the building and walk around to the front. We are concerned about everyone's safety when people park in the front of the school and cross between cars to walk into the building. Thanks for your help with this! –Mrs. Tro.

School Pictures TOMORROW

Pictures for preschoolers will be taken at 9:00 sharp. If you would like a picture of your preschooler, please have them in the multi at 9 A.M. There are extra picture packages on the shelf by the office. –Mrs. Tro.

Early Release

Our first “Early Release” day for this year was a great success. Thanks for picking up your children early so we could complete our meeting and training. –Mrs. Tro.
